WELCOME TO SCA WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP IX

Congratulations on qualifying for the SCA World Championship IV. Held in Fort Worth, Texas March 9th-12th, 2023. This year's event will be the largest cookoff and the biggest cash payout in the SCA history. The SCA team and event volunteers will be ready to make your experience a memorable one. This information package should answer most of your questions. See y'all in Fort Worth!

Fort Worth started as an Army outpost in 1849 along the Trinity River. A stop on the Chisholm Trail where millions of cattle were herded through. The nickname "Cowtown" became a part of Fort Worth's history. The Fort Worth Stockyards still has the Old West feel and Longhorn cattle are herded through daily. While you're here check out Fort Worth and its many attractions, cowboy boots optional.

GENERAL INFORMATION

- NO SET UP WEDNESDAY EVENING ALLOWED. We do not have the facility rented for Wednesday night.
- Teams can set up beginning Thursday Morning from 8am to 3pm at Will Rogers Memorial Center for the SCA World Championship. See schedule for daily load in times. Once set up you may leave your camp set up.
- Teams that only cook the Cowtown Classic only, can ONLY set up on Sunday morning from 8-10am.
- The Cowtown Classic is open to any team to participate whether or not they have qualified for the SCA World Championship.
- No vehicles will be allowed in cook area until after awards on Saturday and Sunday.
- Ancillary World Championship teams can stick around and compete in the Cowtown Classic on Sunday.
- Each team will receive 4 dinner tickets to Thursday night's dinner. Each judge will receive 1 dinner ticket to Thursday Night's dinner. Extra tickets may be purchased on the SCA website.
- US teams, please help our international and long-distance travelling teams by helping them with grills etc. International teams please make a post on the "SCA Group" page on Facebook to get connected with a team.
- At registration teams will be separated into groups of 50 for the semi-finals by drawing poker chips to decide which group the teams will compete against.
- At steak selection the teams will be divided by group color and select steaks from the table matching their group color. Times will be assigned for each group of 50.

GENERAL INFORMATION

- FOOD CHOICES ARE NEW AND IMPROVED, NO NEED TO LEAVE THE AREA!
- Expanded beer garden with ice sales At turn in times the teams will show their colored chip and their turn in tickets will match the color.
- Each group will have their own set of judges assigned for their groups.
- At awards we will recognize the top ten from each of the groups, advancing them to the SCA World Championship Finals. The SCA Points Champions from the USA, Australia, Europe and NZ will receive and auto bid into the Championship Finals (as long as there was 15 events held in their region for the season). In case of a perfect tie (not able to be broke by the SCA tie brake system) for tenth in a group, each team tied will advance.
- If one of the Points Champions is in the top ten of their preliminary rounds, the next person in that group will advance.
